TEMPORARY VISITOR PASS U.S. ARMY GARRISON OKINAWA	Page _____ of _____ Pages	DATE OF REQUEST
DATA REQUIRED BY THE PRIVACY ACT OF 1974
AUTHORITY: Title 10 U.S.C., Code, Section 3013. PRINCIPAL PURPOSE: To provide information to officials of the Army responsible for monitoring/controlling visitor's status. ROUTINE USES: Information is used to record and assign authorized pass numbers to allow authorized visitors onto U.S. Army installations. DISCLOSURE: Voluntary. Failure to disclose the required information will result in authorized pass numbers not being issued; therefore, causing the applicants to have to meet and escort on and off the installation their visitors.
1. INSTRUCTION
a. A "Temporary Visitor Pass" is valid for a single group visit for a specific date and time. It is the sole responsibility of the individual sponsor to include all information listed. Processing time can be reduced if each sponsor will take the time to legibly list the required information in both English and Kanji. This roster must be submitted to the Pass Office, USAGO (IMJN-OES-PS), within twelve (12) working days of the proposed visit. b. The sponsor's signature serves as an acknowledgment the sponsor is aware of his/her individual responsibilities to exercise total control over his/her non-SOFA guests in accordance with the provisions contained in USAG-J Regulation 190-13.
